GOV. EASLEY APPOINTS WYRICK TO COMMISSION ON VOLUNTEERISM AND COMMUNITY SERVICE

RALEIGH – Gov. Mike Easley has appointed Sandra Wyrick of Jacksonville to the N.C. Commission on Volunteerism and Community Service.

Wyrick is the executive director of Onslow Community Ministries and is vice chair of the City of Jacksonville Planning Board. She also is a member of the Civic Affairs Committee. Wyrick received her Bachelor's and Master's degrees in business from Monterey Peninsula College in Monterey, Calif.

The commission advises and assists in the development of a comprehensive statewide service plan for promoting volunteer involvement and citizen participation in North Carolina. The commission also encourages community service in community and state problem-solving and works to promote and support voluntary citizen involvement in government and private programs. The commission has 25 members, each serving a three-year term. The governor appoints all members.
